Bokeh Venture is a boutique company set up to solution Experiential Content for New Age Businesses & Entrepreneurs.

After 18 year of service in Corporate India which involved building the Digital CRM Business roadmap in the country, I am now consulting and mentoring young Brands who are on their way to success. With core strengths in Business Strategy and a passion on Consumer Marketing, I am excited to chalk out this new journey along with a fellow entrepreneur Chethna Shetty, a content evangelist who has deep expertise in Strategy, Writing and one who is also a voracious reader.

Together we hope to bring alive 'focus to impact' solutions that will unlock performance for our Brand Partners.
